Consume: South St. Burger

If you enjoy New York Fries, then definitely check out the South St. Burger Co. The latest venture from the owner of New York Fries serves up fast-food fare with an emphasis on freshness.

Located in the new Rio-Can development at Dufferin Street and Steeles Avenue, South St. Burger Co. offers one-third pound hamburgers ($4.50), grilled chicken ($4.50) and veggie burgers ($4.50), as well as the signature New York Fries and milkshakes made with real ice cream. Fries and onion rings are hand-cut and cooked in trans-fat free sunflower oil. Dress up the taters or rings as poutine ($3.85) or with gravy (75 cents).

There are no combos and no super-sizing, but it's a buck off when you order a burger, fries and a drink.

South St. Burger Co., Unit 1-2215 Steeles Ave. W., 416-514-1412
